FIGHT NAVAL BATTLE

RUSSIAN FLEET AND JAPANESE WARSHIPS IN CONFLICT OFF PORT ARTHUR.

REPORT IS NOT CONFIRMED

RUMORS OF CHANGES AMONG HIGH RUSSIAN OFFICIALS ARE NOW RIFE.

A desperate sortie of the Port Arthur fleet is reported, but it is not confirmed.

In the absence of developments at the front, interest at St. Petersburg centers in the disposition to be made of certain important civil and military officers. Rumor has it that Vice-roy Alexieff has been reinstated in royal favor and will, upon his return from the far East, be the actual director of the Russian policy. Friends of General Kuropatkin are confident that he will be given at least temporary command of the two Manchurian armies.

No news later than Sept. 30 has been received from Port Arthur. At the date given the garrison had been inspired by repulses of the Japanese.

FLEET MAKES A DASH

London, Oct. 6.—A news agency here late last night sent out a dispatch dated Tokio, Oct. 5, saying:

"It is reported that the Russian squadron made a sortie from Port Arthur today and that a great naval battle occurred."

No details are given. There is no confirmation from any source of the reported naval fight at Port Arthur.

JAPS MADE BRAVE ATTACK.

But They Were Unable to Capture Port Arthur.

London, Oct. 6.—The Daily Telegraph's Chefoo correspondent says that on Sept. 24-25 the Japanese made repeated and recklessly brave attempts to capture High Hill at Port Arthur. Owing to the destruction of earthworks their advance was completely unprotected and under the rays of the searchlight the Russian machine guns swept them down in masses.

"More troops, however, came on with fanatical bravery," the correspondent adds, "leaping over the bodies of their dead comrades. Then the Russians, emboldened by their success, sortied. The Japanese replied with machine guns. It was the first time the Japanese had been able to entice the Russians from their shelters and they worked terrible havoc among them."

"The scene next morning was appalling. The hillside was strewn with Russian and Japanese bodies, some of them gripped with ghastly realism. Boulders were trickling with blood."

"A brief message was received today. It is on torn paper, in Chinese, and signed General Stoessel. It states that all had been quiet since September 25, and that the Japanese again had asked for and were refused a truce to bury their dead."

"Enteric fever has broken out in the garrison at Port Arthur."

WILL ATTACK THE JAPS.

Kuropatkin Anxious to Assume the Offensive.

Berlin, Oct. 6.—A dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Mukden says: "General Kuropatkin has expressed a firm determination to avail himself of this favorable season of the year for military action. Everything points to a coming revenge for Liaoyang. The officers and men hope that the period of retreat is past and that they will be led against the enemy."

OUTPOSTS DRIVEN BACK.

Japs Said to Have Been Repulsed Near the Hun River.

Harbin, Oct. 6.—It is reported that the Japanese outposts have been driven back along the line between the Hun river and Benschu.

Russian Warships Off Thursday Island. Brisbane, Queensland, Oct. 6.—It is reported that two Russian warships are cruising off Thursday island.

TWO TRAINMEN KILLED.

Another Probably Fatally Injured in a Railroad Wreck.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 6.—Freight Conductor Wise of the Southern railway and Jack Godhaul, a negro switchman, were killed, and Walter Zeigler, a white railway employee, probably fatally injured in a railway accident. The train was being pushed by a switch engine when suddenly all the brakes became set and the engine crashed into the rear of the caboose.

TO END THE ORIENTAL WAR.

Peace Conference Adopts Measures Looking to That Object.

Boston, Oct. 6.—Resolutions intended to bring about, if possible, an end to the Russo-Japanese war were adopted Wednesday at the meeting of the international peace congress. By the terms of these resolutions the congress will address an appeal to the emperors of Russia and Japan, to terminate the struggle, and each of the powers signatory to The Hague convention will be formally requested to press upon Russia and Japan the importance of putting an end to the present war.

It was also voted that the resolutions referring to friendly intervention by the powers be presented to President Roosevelt by a committee of the congress.

The resolutions were passed after a lengthy discussion in which many of the most prominent foreign delegates participated.

During the discussion, Delegate William R. Cremer of England took occasion, while favoring the treaty between England and Japan as a blunder, and to charge that this treaty doubtless had much to do in bringing on the Russo-Japanese war. The speaker Great Britain's policy of being "party to the treaty" was vigorously defended by Colonel Bryce Jones, M. P.

Three public meetings under the auspices of the congress were held at night.

ITALIAN HAD A CLOSE CALL.

Congo Officials Tried to Poison Him in That Country.

Rome, Oct. 6.—Captain Bacarri, who was sent by the Italian government to study the country with a view to the possible settlement of Italians there, has returned to Rome with a remarkable story of his treatment by the authorities of the independent state. The captain asserts that no sooner had he arrived in the Congo country than he was poisoned at the instigation of officials and only escaped death because being a physician he was able to treat himself. Subsequently, Bacarri stated, the governor general endeavored to have him taken up as a lunatic. Before leaving Bacarri states he entered suit against the governor general for both alleged crimes.

ALEXIEFF IN FAVOR

VICEROY WILL RETURN TO RUSSIA TO BE CHIEF ADVISER

TO THE CZAR.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 6.—A great deal of uncertainty exists concerning momentous changes with which the tongues of everybody have been busy in St. Petersburg ever since the formal announcement of the formation of a second Manchurian army. The delay in the announcement of a commander-in-chief of the Manchurian armies, which has been daily expected, is now said to be due to Emperor Nicholas' intention to wait until Viceroy Alexieff shall have started for St. Petersburg. The viceroy's return in a very short time is everywhere taken for granted and receives credence in the highest circles; but concerning the exact status he will occupy there is great divergence of opinion. In the best informed quarters the belief is expressed that Alexieff's return does not mean his effacement, but that on the contrary the emperor will take occasion to bestow upon him unmistakable marks of his royal favor. His friends assert that he will become the emperor's advisor not only on far Eastern affairs, but on all questions of foreign policy.

Count Lamsdorff's administration of Russian foreign affairs was the subject of persistent criticism by a certain party, called the war party, before the war, and his recent successful efforts to secure concessions in the matter of the recognition of the rights of neutral commerce were obtained against some obstinately hostile and powerful influences. Consequently Count Lamsdorff's enemies freely predict that Alexieff will control the foreign office actually, if not nominally. Count Lamsdorff's friends, however, treat these reports as inventions of his ill wishers. Nevertheless the return to St. Petersburg of M. Bezobrazoff, who was secretary of the far Eastern committee before the war, simultaneously with Alexieff's return, may be fraught with great significance and may foreshadow the complete return to imperial favor of the influences in control before the war. As a matter of fact, however, those usually best informed, admit that they are at sea as to what is actually impending, and in the absence of real authoritative information much of this talk may be merely irresponsible gossip.

FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD.

Bishops of the Episcopal Church Meet in Boston.

Boston, Oct. 6.—The archbishop of Canterbury and bishops from many parts of the world attended the opening session of the general triennial convention of the Episcopal church here. The English primate was last in a long procession of dignitaries, which passed up the broad aisle of Trinity church, where opening services were held in the presence of an immense congregation. He recited one of the prayers in the office of holy communion and read the gospel. The celebrant was the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle of Missouri, presiding bishop; the gospeller was Rt. Rev. James Carmichael, bishop coadjutor of Montreal, and the preacher, Bishop William Doane of Albany, N. Y.

ALLEGED MURDERER OF SHERIFF HAROLD HARRIS OF WISCONSIN APPREHENDED.

MAN APPEARS TO BE INSANE

LONG CHASE SEEMS TO HAVE UNHINGED THE MIND OF THE HUNTED BANDIT.

St. Paul, Oct. 6.—John Smith, who is wanted for murder in two states, and on whose head a bounty of $1,000 has been placed, has been captured, after having been hunted by dogs and men for three months, driving him to desperation and insanity.

At least so says Sheriff T. A. Walby of St. Croix county, Wis., in whose county the murder of Sheriff Harold O. Harris, for which Smith is wanted, occurred. According to Sheriff Walby Smith was captured last Thursday near Barronette, Wis., and has been in close confinement ever since, but for various reasons the information was suppressed, until a chance remark addressed by Governor Van Sant to Sheriff Walby at the capitol Wednesday, where Walby had gone to secure a requisition for another prisoner, revealed the capture.

The man now under arrest who answers the description of the wanted man in every particular, was apprehended last Thursday near Barronette, Barron county, Wis., by Sheriff John M. Raasbach, with the assistance of a deputy. The sheriff and his deputy while out hunting were traveling along a road through a dense wood near Barronette in a two-seated wagon, when they were suddenly halted by a wild-eyed man clad in tattered garments and carrying a rifle with which he commanded them to halt. They did so, and after alighting at the command of the man, their weapons were taken from them.

"I know you," said the man. "You're the sheriff, and you're looking for me. You've found me, now what are you going to do about it?" The man was Smith.

After considerable parlying the outlaw was convinced that the men were not officers and he was induced to take a seat in the wagon, when he was overpowered and handcuffed. He tried to kill the sheriff, but the bullet went wide of the mark. Smith appears to be insane.

Smith says his assumed name is Fred Kelly, his right name being John Gearey, and says he was born at Alberton, Prince Edward Island. He is wanted for the murder of Sheriff Harold O. Harris of St. Croix county, Wis., on a train near Eau Claire on June 18, last.

DISMISSED BY THE MAYOR.

New York City Civil Service Commissioners Ousted.

New York, Oct. 6.—William P. Schmitt, commissioner of parks for the borough of the Bronx of Greater New York, and the five members of the civil service commission were summarily removed from office on Wednesday by Mayor McClellan. The removal was made after an investigation of charges laid before the mayor by the civil service reform association. These charges allege that Schmitt exploited positions in his department for political purposes by discharging certain employees and employing others in violation of the civil service rules, "with the co-operation of the civil service commission." The men removed from office besides Schmitt are John H. McCooley, president of the board, and his colleagues, Jerome Siegel, Eugene F. O'Connor and E. A. Crowninshield. Hal Bell, the other member of the board, had already resigned.

Half an hour after these officials were removed, the appointment of a new board was announced with Bird S. Coler, former comptroller, as president. In appointing the new board, Mayor McClellan exercised the discretion permitted by the charter and reduced the number of the commission to three. Mr. Coler's colleagues are Alfred Talley, a lawyer, and Ross Appleton of Brooklyn.

The president of the board is the only salaried member and receives $6,000 per year.

LIGHTNING HITS AN OIL TANK.

Findlay, O., Oct. 6.—The plant of the National Refining company was completely destroyed by fire early Wednesday entailing a loss of upwards of $200,000. The fire was started through lightning striking a 30,000 barrel tank, which at the time was about two-thirds full. When the tank exploded thousands of barrels of burning oil were spread over the surrounding territory. Spectators who had gathered turned and fled wildly from the oncoming sea of fire. A number of persons were burned, but none fatally. The efforts of the fire department to suppress the flames were unavailing and for a time it looked as if the west part of the town was doomed. A sudden shift of the wind, however, saved surrounding property and the flames were confined to the National plant.

Coats and Children's Ready-to-wear Garments.

It may be that we have overestimated the number of suits we can sell in Brainerd, but we are determined to show a very complete line. One thing is certain: that our showing will comprise the best styles that are being shown in the east today.

Every lady knows that the best in ready-made garments is brought from the New York and other eastern markets. It is nearer the fountain head of style.

That our suits will be absolutely correct in style does not say that they are necessarily high priced. The one characteristic feature of our store will be the reasonableness of our prices for high-class merchandise.

Don't you think you can wait for our showing?

RECEPTION TO JUDGE PARKER.

First Formal Social Function Held in New York.

New York, Oct. 6.—The first public reception of Alton B. Parker since his nomination for the presidency was tendered him last night by the Manhattan club. The clubhouse was taxed to its utmost capacity to accommodate the invited guests. Judge Parker entered the club soon after 8 o'clock accompanied by William F. Sheehan.

Judge Parker and Judge D. Cady Herick, Democratic nominee for governor of New York, stood side by side on a slightly elevated platform at the east end of the large dining room, flanked by the reception committee.

Henry G. Davis was not present, but he sent a letter of regret. Invitations to the reception were extended to the members of the national committee, every Democratic United States senator, candidates on the Democratic state ticket in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, the members of the Democratic state committees of those three states, the Democratic governors of states, and various political clubs and leaders.

Judge Parker shook hands with a large number of persons. In addition to the specially invited guests a great throng accepted the invitation implied by the management of the club when the doors were thrown open to the people that formed almost a mob on the outside. From the time one mounted the first stairway it took just an hour to reach the main reception room, where Judge Parker and Judge Herick were stationed. The crowd was kept moving and it was three hours before it diminished in the least.

The reception furnished an opportunity to many Democrats to meet Judge Parker for the first time. The candidate untiringly shook hands and exchanged greetings with every guest. At 11 o'clock luncheon was served.

Cannon Talks in Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, Oct. 6.—Joseph G. Cannon, speaker of the national house of representatives, made his appearance at the Minneapolis auditorium last night. Thomas Lowry presided, and grouped about him on the stage were men of considerable wealth. Mr. Cannon discussed protection. J. Adam Bede also spoke.

Six Men Badly Injured.

Marietta, O., Oct. 6.—Six men were seriously injured and four others were slightly hurt by the breaking of a scaffold on the new St. Mary's church Wednesday. The men were precipitated thirty-five feet to a floor.

Lady Curzon Improving. London, Oct. 6.—The improvement in the condition of Lady Curzon was maintained last evening.

FIGHT NAVAL BATTLE

REPORT IS NOT CONFIRMED

RUMORS OF CHANGES AMONG HIGH RUSSIAN OFFICIALS ARE NOW RIFE.

A desperate sortie of the Port Arthur fleet is reported, but it is not confirmed.

In the absence of developments at the front, interest at St. Petersburg centers in the disposition to be made of certain important civil and military officers. Rumor has it that Vice-roy Alexieff has been reinstated in royal favor and will, upon his return from the far East, be the actual director of the Russian policy. Friends of General Kuropatkin are confident that he will be given at least temporary command of the two Manchurian armies.

No news later than Sept. 30 has been received from Port Arthur. At the date given the garrison had been inspired by repulses of the Japanese.

FLEET MAKES A DASH

London, Oct. 6.—A news agency here late last night sent out a dispatch dated Tokyo, Oct. 5, saying:

"It is reported that the Russian squadron made a sortie from Port Arthur today and that a great naval battle occurred."

No details are given. There is no confirmation from any source of the reported naval fight at Port Arthur.

JAPS MADE BRAVE ATTACK.

But They Were Unable to Capture Port Arthur.

London, Oct. 6.—The Daily Telegraph's Chefoo correspondent says that on Sept. 24-25 the Japanese made repeated and recklessly brave attempts to capture High hill at Port Arthur. Owing to the destruction of earthworks their advance was completely unprotected and under the rays of the searchlight the Russian machine guns swept them down in masses.

"More troops, however, came on with fanatical bravery," the correspondent adds, "leaping over the bodies of their dead comrades. Then the Russians, emboldened by their success, sortied. The Japanese replied with machine guns. It was the first time the Japanese had been able to entice the Russians from their shelters and they worked terrible havoc among them."

"The scene next morning was appalling. The hillside was strewn with Russian and Japanese bodies, some of them gripped with ghastly realism. Boulders were trickling with blood."

"A brief message was received today. It is on torn paper, in Chinese, and signed General Stoessel. It states that all had been quiet since September 25, and that the Japanese again had asked for and were refused a truce to bury their dead."

"Enteric fever has broken out in the garrison at Port Arthur."

WILL ATTACK THE JAPS.

Kuropatkin Anxious to Assume the Offense.

Berlin, Oct. 6.—A dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Mukden says: "General Kuropatkin has expressed a firm determination to avail himself of this favorable season of the year for military action. Everything points to a coming revenge for Liaoyang. The officers and men hope that the period of retreat is past and that they will be led against the enemy."

OUTPOSTS DRIVEN BACK.

Japs Said to Have Been Repulsed Near the Hun River.

Harbin, Oct. 6.—It is reported that the Japanese outposts have been driven back along the line between the Hun river and Benschu.

Russian Warships Off Thursday Island. Brisbane, Queensland, Oct. 6.—It is reported that two Russian warships are cruising off Thursday Island.

TWO TRAINMEN KILLED.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 6.—Freight Conductor Wise of the Southern railway and Jack Godhaul, a negro switchman, were killed, and Walter Zeigler, a white railway employee, probably fatally injured in a railway accident. The train was being pushed by a switch engine when suddenly all the brakes became set and the engine crashed into the rear of the caboose.

TO END THE ORIENTAL WAR.

Peace Conference Adopts Measures Looking to That Object.

Boston, Oct. 6.—Resolutions intended to bring about, if possible, an end to the Russo-Japanese war were adopted Wednesday at the meeting of the international peace congress. By the terms of these resolutions the congress will address an appeal to the emperors of Russia and Japan, to terminate the struggle, and each of the powers signatory to The Hague convention will be formally requested to press upon Russia and Japan the importance of putting an end to the present war.

It was also voted that the resolutions referring to friendly intervention by the powers be presented to President Roosevelt by a committee of the congress.

The resolutions were passed after a lengthy discussion in which many of the most prominent foreign delegates participated.

During the discussion, Delegate William R. Cremer of England took occasion, while favoring the declarations, to characterize the treaty between England and Japan as a blunder, and to charge that this treaty doubtless had much to do in bringing on the Russo-Japanese war. The upon Great Britain's policy of being a party to the treaty was vigorously defended by Colonel Bryce Jones, M. P.

Three public meetings under the auspices of the congress were held at night.

ITALIAN HAD A CLOSE CALL.

Congo Officials Tried to Poison Him in That Country.

Rome, Oct. 6.—Captain Bacarri, who was sent by the Italian government to the Congo sixteen months ago to study the country with a view to the possible settlement of Italians there, has returned to Rome with a remarkable story of his treatment by the authorities of the independent state. The captain asserts that no sooner had he arrived in the Congo country than he was poisoned at the instigation of officials and only escaped death because being a physician he was able to treat himself. Subsequently, Bacarri stated, the governor general endeavored to have him taken up as a lunatic. Before leaving Bacarri states he entered suit against the governor general for both alleged crimes.

ALEXIEFF IN FAVOR

VICEROY WILL RETURN TO RUSSIA TO BE CHIEF ADVISER TO THE CZAR.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 6.—A great deal of uncertainty exists concerning momentous changes with which the tongues of everybody have been busy in St. Petersburg ever since the formal announcement of the formation of a second Manchurian army. The delay in the announcement of a commander-in-chief of the Manchurian armies, which has been daily expected, is now said to be due to Emperor Nicholas' intention to wait until Viceroy Alexieff shall have started for St. Petersburg. The viceroy's return in a very short time is everywhere taken for granted and receives credence in the highest circles; but concerning the exact status he will occupy there is great divergence of opinion. In the best informed quarters the belief is expressed that Alexieff's return does not mean his effacement, but that on the contrary the emperor will take occasion to bestow upon him unmistakable marks of his royal favor. His friends assert that he will become the emperor's advisor not only on far Eastern affairs, but on all questions of foreign policy.

Count Lamsdorff's administration of Russian foreign affairs was the subject of persistent criticism by a certain party, called the war party, before the war, and his recent successful efforts to secure concessions in the matter of the recognition of the rights of neutral commerce were obtained against some obstinately hostile and powerful influences. Consequently Count Lamsdorff's enemies freely predict that Alexieff will control the foreign office actually, if not nominally. Count Lamsdorff's friends, however, treat these reports as inventions of his ill wishers. Nevertheless the return to St. Petersburg of M. Bezobrazoff, who was secretary of the far Eastern committee before the war, simultaneously with Alexieff's return, may be fraught with great significance and may foreshadow the complete return to imperial favor of the influences in control before the war. As a matter of fact, however, those usually best informed, admit that they are at sea as to what is actually impending, and in the absence of real authoritative information much of this talk may be merely irresponsible gossip.

FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD.

Bishops of the Episcopal Church Meet in Boston.

Boston, Oct. 6.—The archbishop of Canterbury and bishops from many parts of the world attended the opening session of the general triennial convention of the Episcopal church here. The English primate was last in a long procession of dignitaries, which passed up the broad aisle of Trinity church, where opening services were held in the presence of an immense congregation. He recited one of the prayers in the office of holy communion and read the gospel. The celebrant was the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle of Missouri, presiding bishop; the gospeller was Rt. Rev. James Carmichael, bishop coadjutor of Montreal, and the preacher, Bishop William Doane of Albany, N. Y.

SLAYER IS ARRESTED

LONG CHASE SEEMS TO HAVE UNHINGED THE MIND OF THE HUNTED BANDIT.

St. Paul, Oct. 6.—John Smith, who is wanted for murder in two states, and on whose head a bounty of $1,000 has been placed, has been captured, after having been hunted by dogs and men for three months, driving him to desperation and insanity.

At least so says Sheriff T. A. Walby of St. Croix county, Wis., in whose county the murder of Sheriff Harold O. Harris, for which Smith is wanted, occurred. According to Sheriff Walby Smith was captured last Thursday near Barronette, Wis., and has been in close confinement ever since, but for various reasons the information was suppressed, until a chance remark addressed by Governor Van Sant to Sheriff Walby at the capitol Wednesday, where Walby had gone to secure a requisition for another prisoner, revealed the capture.

The man now under arrest who answers the description of the wanted man in every particular, was apprehended last Thursday near Barronette, Barron county, Wis., by Sheriff John M. Raasbach, with the assistance of a deputy. The sheriff and his deputy while out hunting were traveling along a road through a dense wood near Barronette in a two seated wagon, when they were suddenly halted by a wild-eyed man clad in tattered garments and carrying a rifle with which he commanded them to halt. They did so, and after alighting at the command of the man, their weapons were taken from them.

"I know you," said the man. "You're the sheriff, and you're looking for me. You've found me, now what are you going to do about it." The man was Smith.

After considerable parlying the outlaw was convinced that the men were not officers and he was induced to take a seat in the wagon, when he was overpowered and handcuffed. He tried to kill the sheriff, but the bullet went wide of the mark. Smith appears to be insane.

Smith says his assumed name is Fred Kelly, his right name being John Gearey, and says he was born at Alberton, Prince Edward Island. He is wanted for the murder of Sheriff Harold O. Harris of St. Croix county, Wis., on a train near Eau Claire on June 18, last.

DISMISSED BY THE MAYOR.

New York City Civil Service Commissioners Ousted.

New York, Oct. 6.—William P. Schmitt, commissioner of parks for the borough of the Bronx of Greater New York, and the five members of the civil service commission were summarily removed from office on Wednesday by Mayor McClellan. The removal was made after an investigation of charges laid before the mayor by the civil service reform association. These charges allege that Schmitt exploited positions in his department for political purposes by discharging certain employees and employing others in violation of the civil service rules, "with the cooperation of the civil service commission." The men removed from office besides Schmitt are John H. McCoey, president of the board, and his colleagues, Jerome Siegel, Eugene F. O'Connor and E. A. Crowninshield. Hal Bell, the other member of the board, had already resigned.

Half an hour after these officials were removed, the appointment of a new board was announced with Bird S. Coler, former comptroller, as president. In appointing the new board, Mayor McClellan exercised the discretion permitted by the charter and reduced the number of the commission to three. Mr. Coler's colleagues are Alfred Talley, a lawyer, and Ross Appleton of Brooklyn.

The president of the board is the only salaried member and receives $6,000 per year.

LIGHTNING HITS AN OIL TANK.

Findlay, O., Oct. 6.—The plant of the National Refining company was completely destroyed by fire early Wednesday entailing a loss of upwards of $200,000. The fire was started through lightning striking a 30,000 barrel tank, which at the time was about two-thirds full. When the tank exploded thousands of barrels of burning oil were spread over the surrounding territory. Spectators who had gathered turned and fled wildly from the oncoming sea of fire. A number of persons were burned, but none fatally. The efforts of the fire department to suppress the flames were unavailing and for a time it looked as if the west part of the town was doomed. A sudden shift of the wind, however, saved surrounding property and the flames were confined to the National plant.

It will Pay You to Wait and See our Ladies' Suits,

Coats and Children's Ready-to-wear Garments.

It may be that we have overestimated the number of suits we can sell in Brainerd, but we are determined to show a very complete line. One thing is certain: that our showing will comprise the best styles that are being shown in the east today.

Every lady knows that the best in ready-made garments is brought from the New York and other eastern markets. It is nearer the fountain head of style.

That our suits will be absolutely correct in style does not say that they are necessarily high priced. The one characteristic feature of our store will be the reasonableness of our prices for high-class merchandise.

Don't you think you can wait for our showing?

RECEPTION TO JUDGE PARKER.

New York, Oct. 6.—The first public reception of Alton B. Parker since his nomination for the presidency was tendered him last night by the Manhattan club. The clubhouse was taxed to its utmost capacity to accommodate the invited guests. Judge Parker entered the club soon after 8 o'clock accompanied by William F. Sheehan.

Judge Parker and Judge D. Cady Herrick, Democratic nominee for governor of New York, stood side by side on a slightly elevated platform at the east end of the large dining room, flanked by the reception committee.

Henry G. Davis was not present, but he sent a letter of regret.

Invitations to the reception were extended to the members of the national committee, every Democratic United States senator, candidates on the Democratic state ticket in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, the members of the Democratic state committees of those three states, the Democratic governors of states, and various political clubs and leaders.

Judge Parker shook hands with a large number of persons. In addition to the specially invited guests a great throng accepted the invitation implied by the management of the club when the doors were thrown open to the people that formed almost a mob on the outside. From the time one mounted the first stairway it took just an hour to reach the main reception room, where Judge Parker and Judge Herrick were stationed. The crowd was kept moving and it was three hours before it diminished in the least.

The reception furnished an opportunity to many Democrats to meet Judge Parker for the first time. The candidate untrillingly shook hands and exchanged greetings with every guest. At 11 o'clock luncheon was served.

GUARDED BY MARINES

BATTLESHIP CONNECTICUT IS UNDER STRICTEST KIND OF SURVEILLANCE.

MYSTERY STILL UNSOLVED

NO REASON KNOWN FOR THE REPEATED ATTEMPTS TO SINK THE WARSHIP.

New York, Oct. 6.—Guarded by marines with loaded rifles on board her and on shore, and with powerful electric searchlights playing over her, the newly launched battleship Connecticut, already the object of three serious attacks, lay at her station in the Brooklyn navyyard last night. The officers are using every conceivable precaution against the recurrence of the mysterious attempts to disable or destroy the new war vessel, and they think they have about rendered it impossible. Marines and secret service men are about her all the time, while about the last official act of Rear Admiral Rodgers, who turned over the command of the yard Monday to Rear Admiral Coghlan, was to make an appeal to the patriotism of the workmen. While the regulations governing the construction of a vessel are strict and the supervision as strict, even greater precautions will be taken in future. A naval constructor will be on the new vessel until she leaves the yard, giving his personal supervision to every detail of the work. A strict investigation involving much detective work is under way. Of this the authorities will not talk.

BALFOUR OPENS CAMPAIGN.

British Premier Talks to Scotchmen in Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, Scotland, Oct. 6.—Premier Balfour opened the autumn campaign here last night as the guest of the Conservative club. He first seconded a motion of condolence with Lady Harcourt and the members of her family.

Mr. Balfour said the leader of the Irish party had given wide currency in America to the view that in the next parliament the Irish members would hold the balance of power. So far as the Unionists were concerned, no bargaining would occur. The Unionists were not for sale. Regarding the fiscal policy, Mr. Balfour said he had nothing to alter in what is known as the Sheffield policy.

Mr. Balfour said he was no protectionist; he was one of those who thought protection was not the best policy under existing circumstances. It was not a policy that he recommended directly or indirectly either to his colleagues or to the country and he did not think he could remain the leader of his party if protection were adopted.

Whether Mr. Chamberlain's estimate of colonial opinion was right or wrong, Mr. Balfour entirely agreed with Mr. Chamberlain that a point had been reached where the only way out was to have a free conference with the self-governing colonies and India. Mr. Balfour strongly recommended that course to the Unionist party, and said he believed such a conference might do much good.

BAD AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

One Man Fatally Injured and Two Others Severely Hurt.

New York, Oct. 6.—One man was probably fatally injured and two others severely cut and bruised by the wrecking of an automobile in which they were making a speed test preparatory to next Saturday's race, for the Vanderbilt cup, near Hicksville, L. I., Monday night. The man who may die is a machinist named Rigby, employed by a Toledo, O., automobile company, and the others are fellow employees named Appleton and Little, both from the same place. They were within half a mile of their destination when one of the large front tires parted from the wheel. Simultaneously the steering gear became disabled, and the automobile, swerving at right angles, crashed into a rail fence.

As the machine turned upon its side the three men were thrown out with great violence. Appleton and Little fell unconscious in the middle of the road but Rigby was flung against the fence and three of his ribs were broken, one of them penetrating the lung.

FOUR MEN ARE KILLED.

Two Others May Die From Injuries Received in a Mine.

Cartersville, Ga., Oct. 6.—By the falling of earth and ore estimated at 6,000 tons weight, the lives of four men were snuffed out here Monday. Two others are seriously injured and are expected to die.

The dead are R. P. Morgan, president and manager of the Morgan Mining company, Cartersville; Jack Harris, Jr., white; Robert Boynton, negro, and an unknown negro.

Harris, Boynton and the unknown negro are still buried beneath the mass of earth.

One hundred men are now working to remove the earth.

The cause of the disaster is what is known by miners as a "slick head." A heavy strata of oil lay above a mass of clay and the latter gave way.

Fearing that the water supply is infected, Dr. Benjamin Lee of the state board of health has been called in and a sample of the drinking water is now in the hands of the state board of health for analysis. The epidemic broke out four weeks ago and there have been nine deaths.

WELCOMED BY JOHN HAY.

Boston, Oct. 6.—Secretary of State John Hay, representing the United States of America, spoke the word of welcome Monday afternoon to the delegates of the international peace congress who assembled here for the first formal meeting of the thirteenth annual convention. President G. R. Hays of the Massachusetts senate spoke the greeting of the commonwealth of Massachusetts, and Mayor Patrick A. Collins that of Boston.

Secretary Hay traced briefly the war history of this country and pointed out that the country's greatest men had been warm advocates of peace. He agreed with Tolstoi that religion is the remedy for war. He promised the administration's support, so far as practicable, of the principle of arbitration of such questions as may not be settled through diplomatic relations, and expressed confidence that at no distant date the attention of the nations may be brought to a project looking toward the return of peace in the far East.

The meeting was held in Tremont temple. Before 2 o'clock, the hour set for the Tremont temple meeting, the spacious auditorium was jammed and streams of people were turned away.

A vast number of telegrams were received from all over the country, a large portion of them coming from Wisconsin. A request came from members of the family in Milwaukee that a public service be held in that city.

A committee consisting of First Assistant Postmaster General Wynne, W. A. Michael and Major Charles H. McCauley of the marine corps, will meet at the state department today to plan the details of the funeral arrangements. It is expected that the general programme adopted for the funeral of Sir Michael Herbert will be followed. Invitations will be extended to public officials, the diplomatic corps, the judiciary, district officials and friends of the family. The army and navy will be represented. General Chaffee sent his aide to tender a military escort. The Rev. Cotton Smith, rector of St. John Episcopal church, where the funeral services are to be held at 1 o'clock Friday, will conduct the ceremony there, while the Rt. Rev. Isaac Nicholson, bishop of Milwaukee, will conduct the services in Milwaukee. Second Assistant Postmaster General Shallenberger will represent the postoffice department at the funeral of Mr. Payne at Milwaukee.

WELCOMED BY JOHN HAY.

Boston, Oct. 6.—Secretary of State John Hay, representing the United States of America, spoke the word of welcome Monday afternoon to the delegates of the international peace congress who assembled here for the first formal meeting of the thirteenth annual convention. President G. R. Hays of the Massachusetts senate spoke the greeting of the commonwealth of Massachusetts, and Mayor Patrick A. Collins that of Boston.

Secretary Hay traced briefly the war history of this country and pointed out that the country's greatest men had been warm advocates of peace. He agreed with Tolstoi that religion is the remedy for war. He promised the administration's support, so far as practicable, of the principle of arbitration of such questions as may not be settled through diplomatic relations, and expressed confidence that at no distant date the attention of the nations may be brought to a project looking toward the return of peace in the far East.

The meeting was held in Tremont temple. Before 2 o'clock, the hour set for the Tremont temple meeting, the spacious auditorium was jammed and streams of people were turned away.

"AS YOU LIKE IT."

In speaking of Miss Florence Gale in "As You Like It" which will be the attraction at the Brainerd opera house on Thursday, Oct. 13, the St. Catharines Journal says:

"A large and fashionable audience witnessed the performance of Shakespeare's charming comedy at the Grand opera house on Friday night. The company is a clever one and the play was staged with great regard to the minutest detail and artistic effect, some of the scenes in the production being remarkably pretty. The costuming was all that could be desired and the ladies present certainly enjoyed the handsome gowns worn during the course of the play.

"Everyone has read Shakespeare and consequently there is no need to say anything about the plot. Miss Florence Gale, a remarkably handsome woman, made the most of 'Rosalind' and received much merited applause for her work, while George Sylvester as 'Orlando,' the lover of Rosalind, gave Miss Gale excellent support and made a most ardent lover. The cast is too long a one to mention individually and it will suffice to say that the company is an exceptionally good one. Paul Taylor as the court jester was excellent and Miss Bower as 'Celia,' companion to Rosalind, was also worthy of special mention. Particularly pleasing was the solo, 'Blow, Blow, Thou Winter Winds,' by Mr. E. Pooley. The singing of the English quartette was also much admired."

"THAT LITTLE SWEDEN" LAST NIGHT.

There was only a fair audience out last night to witness the performance of "That Little Sweden," with Miss Emily Erickson Greene in the title role. BENJAMIN HENRY

DIED AT FERGUS

Death Recalls a Rather Sensational Story of Troubles which Led up to Commitment

WAS A CLERK IN THE SHOPS

Remains Taken to His Former Home in Boston for Burial by His Relatives

Word has reached the city of the death of Benjamin Henry at the Fergus Falls insane asylum where he was taken something over a year ago.

It will be remembered that his case at the time of his examination attracted wide attention largely on account of the sensational reports that were spread broadcast, which were at first thought to be true, but which ultimately were known to be the product of a demented mind. Henry worked in the N. P. shops in this city as a clerk and suddenly grew very jealous of his wife. His wife left him with her children and the papers contained some sensational reports about the supposed runaway. Henry had an idea that he was wiser than Solomon ever dared be and it was finally decided that his mind was affected and he was taken before Judge Sanborn to be examined as to his sanity. He was ordered committed to the asylum at Fergus Falls.

The remains have been shipped by relatives to Boston, his former home for burial.

YOUNG GIRL IS MURDERED.

No Clue to the Perpetrator of a Brutal Crime in Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Minnie Harkening, fifteen years of age, was choked to death by an unknown assailant in a barn on her father's premises on the outskirts of the city late Wednesday afternoon. The girl, who had been left alone in charge of three small children, visited the barn, and when she did not return after an absence of ten minutes the other children followed her to the barn and found her dead body lying on the floor. She had been cruelly beaten and abused before being strangled. There is no clue to the murderer.

FUNERAL OF SENATOR HOAR.

Simple Services Held Over Remains of the Statesman.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4.—Funeral services for United States Senator George Frisbie Hoar were held here Monday. In the presence of many persons representing societies and associations, the city of Worcester, the commonwealth of Massachusetts and the congress of the United States, the favorite hymns of the dead statesman were sung, the Ninetieth psalm was read and two clergymen spoke words in eulogy of the man who had been their friend for many years.

The day was beautifully clear and cool and residents of this city probably in greater numbers than had ever before assembled for any purpose, lined the streets through which the short procession passed. Public and private business in the city was suspended. Buildings were draped and pictures of Senator Hoar were generally displayed with symbols of mourning in the windows. The services, which were held in the little church of the Unity, which Senator Hoar attended, in accordance with the wishes of the senator, were of a most unceremonious nature. Three hymns were sung, Rev. Dr. Rush R. Shippen of Brocton spoke briefly of his personal acquaintance with Senator Hoar and Dr. Edward Everett Hale, the venerable chaplain of the United States senate, schoolmate and lifelong friend of the senator, spoke at greater length, after having read a psalm and offered a brief prayer.

Less than an hour was taken up with the simple exercises at the church and after those present had taken a final look at the face of the senator, the body was removed to City Hall to lie in state, where the thousands viewed it.

During the evening the body was removed to an undertaker's shop where a death mask was made.

Today it will be taken to Concord for interment.

Thirty-five thousand people passed through city hall and viewed the body of Senator George F. Hoar between 4:30 and 4:40 p. m. Fifty thousand people massed in front of city hall and adjacent ways and many cases of fainting women were noted. Police ambulances carried nineteen people from the crush to their homes and others were cared for in city hall.

P. E. MURPHY DEAD

Tenth Dropped Dead Suddenly

Patrick E. Murphy, a brother of John Murphy, Tenth street north and an uncle of J. H. Murphy, the Sixth street clothier, dropped dead yesterday morning in St. Paul. He was very well known in this city. The St. Paul Dispatch contains this account of the sudden ending:

"Patrick E. Murphy, a traveling salesman living at 718 Selby avenue, and for the past thirty years a resident of St. Paul, dropped dead at the corner of Dale street and Como avenue at 10:45 this morning. Murphy was driving along Dale street, and when he reached the car track on Como avenue, he was seen to throw up his hands, stretch out his arms and fall forward out of the buggy. He was carried into Philip Arnold's store, on the corner, where feeble pulse beats ceased and he passed away.

Coroner A. W. Miller certifies that death was due to an apoplectic stroke. Murphy, who was a local salaried man for a Detroit, Mich., clothing house, stopped in at Arnold's store to speak with Arnold for a few minutes. After the short conversation, Murphy who seemed to be in the best of health, walked out the side door, turning as he did so to say: "Good morning, gentlemen."

He climbed into his buggy and started the horse up Dale street toward Como. He had no sooner reached the car tracks when the stroke came.

Murphy was well known in St. Paul. He was a familiar figure about the streets and had a host of friends. His popularity led him to dip into politics two years ago, when he was a candidate for the democratic nomination for sheriff. He was beaten for the nomination.

Although born in Ireland, Murphy had lived in America the greater part of his life. His birthplace was in Northern Ireland, near Belfast, where he first saw the light of day 54 years ago. He came to America about forty years ago and to St. Paul thirty years past.

Feet

The plans for the big brick structure being erected by R. R. Wise on the old Hartley block site have been exhibited. The new structure will run clear back from Front street to the alley and will be three stories high. The structure now being built will be 75 by 100 feet. There will be a store room next to the Skauge drug store and two others east of this, which are to be used for a lobby and dining room for the new hotel until Mr. Wise has definite plans for the corner, which will also be built up ultimately as a part of the hotel. The old wall at the rear of the old Hartley building is left standing. This will form a partition between the kitchen part of the building and the front end. Men have already commenced work on the foundation.

The cast is too long a one to mention individually and it will suffice to say that the company is an exceptionally good one. Paul Taylor as the court jester was excellent and Miss Bower as 'Celia,' companion to Rosalind, was also worthy of special mention. Particularly pleasing was the solo, 'Blow, Blow, Thou Winter Wind,' by Mr. E. Pooley. The singing of the English quartette was also much admired."

DIED AT FERGUS

Death Recalls a Rather Sensational Story of Troubles which Led up to Commitment

WAS A CLERK IN THE SHOPS

Word has reached the city of the death of Benjamin Henry at the Fergus Falls insane asylum where he was taken something over a year ago.

It will be remembered that his case at the time of his examination attracted wide attention largely on account of the sensational reports that were spread broadcast, which were at first thought to be true, but which ultimately were known to be the product of a demented mind. Henry worked in the N. P. shops in this city as a clerk and suddenly grew very jealous of his wife. His wife left him with her children and the papers contained some sensational reports about the supposed runaway. Henry had an idea that he was wiser than Solomon ever dared be and it was finally decided that his mind was affected and he was taken before Judge Sanborn to be examined as to his sanity. He was ordered committed to the asylum at Fergus Falls.

The remains have been shipped by relatives to Boston, his former home for burial.

YOUNG GIRL IS MURDERED.

No Clue to the Perpetrator of a Brutal Crime in Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Minnie Harkening, fifteen years of age, was choked to death by an unknown assailant in a barn on her father's premises on the outskirts of the city late Wednesday afternoon. The girl, who had been left alone in charge of three small children, visited the barn, and when she did not return after an absence of ten minutes the other children followed her to the barn and found her dead body lying on the floor. She had been cruelly beaten and abused before being strangled. There is no clue to the murderer.

FUNERAL OF SENATOR HOAR.

Simple Services Held Over Remains of the Statesman.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4.—Funeral services for United States Senator George Frisbie Hoar were held here Monday. In the presence of many persons representing societies and associations, the city of Worcester, the commonwealth of Massachusetts and the congress of the United States, the favorite hymns of the dead statesman were sung, the Ninetieth psalm was read and two clergymen spoke words in eulogy of the man who had been their friend for many years.

The day was beautifully clear and cool and residents of this city probably in greater numbers than had ever before assembled for any purpose, lined the streets through which the short procession passed. Public and private business in the city was suspended. Buildings were draped and pictures of Senator Hoar were generally displayed with symbols of mourning in the windows. The services, which were held in the little church of the Unity, which Senator Hoar attended, in accordance with the wishes of the senator, were of a most unceremonious nature. Three hymns were sung. Rev. Dr. Rush R. Shippen of Brocton spoke briefly of his personal acquaintance with Senator Hoar and Dr. Edward Everett Hale, the venerable chaplain of the United States senate, schoolmate and lifelong friend of the senator, spoke at greater length, after having read a psalm and offered a brief prayer.

Less than an hour was taken up with the simple exercises at the church and after those present had taken a final look at the face of the senator, the body was removed to City Hall to lie in state, where the thousands viewed it.

During the evening the body was removed to an undertaker's shop where a death mask was made.

Today it will be taken to Concord for interment.

Thirty-five thousand people passed through city hall and viewed the body of Senator George F. Hoar between 4:30 and 4:45 p. m. Fifty thousand people massed in front of city hall and adjacent ways and many cases of fainting women were noted. Police ambulances carried nineteen people from the crush to their homes and others were cared for in city hall.

P. E. MURPHY DEAD

Well Known Traveling Salesman and a Brother of John Murphy of North Tenth Dropped Dead Suddenly

Patrick E. Murphy, a brother of John Murphy, Tenth street north and an uncle of J. H. Murphy, the Sixth street clothier, dropped dead yesterday morning in St. Paul. He was very well known in this city. The St. Paul Dispatch contains this account of the sudden ending:

"Patrick E. Murphy, a traveling salesman living at 718 Selby avenue, and for the past thirty years a resident of St. Paul, dropped dead at the corner of Dale street and Como avenue at 10:45 this morning. Murphy was driving along Dale street, and when he reached the car track on Como avenue, he was seen to throw up his hands, stretch out his arms and fall forward out of the buggy. He was carried into Philip Arnold's store, on the corner, where feeble pulse beats ceased and he passed away.

Coroner A. W. Miller certifies that death was due to an apoplectic stroke. Murphy, who was a local salesman for a Detroit, Mich., clothing house, stopped in at Arnold's store to speak with Arnold for a few minutes. After the short conversation, Murphy who seemed to be in the best of health, walked out the side door, turning as he did so to say: "Good morning, gentlemen."

He climbed into his buggy and started the horse up Dale street toward Como. He had no sooner reached the car tracks when the stroke came.

Murphy was well known in St. Paul. He was a familiar figure about the streets and had a host of friends. His popularity led him to dip into politics two years ago, when he was a candidate for the democratic nomination for sheriff. He was beaten for the nomination.

Although born in Ireland, Murphy had lived in America the greater part of his life. His birthplace was in Northern Ireland, near Belfast, where he first saw the light of day 54 years ago. He came to America about forty years ago and to St. Paul thirty years past."

The plans for the big brick structure being erected by R. R. Wise on the old Hartley block site have been exhibited. The new structure will run clear back from Front street to the alley and will be three stories high. The structure now being built will be 75 by 100 feet. There will be a store room next to the Skauge drug store and two others east of this, which are to be used for a lobby and dining room for the new hotel until Mr. Wise has definite plans for the corner, which will also be built up ultimately as a part of the hotel. The old wall at the rear of the old Hartley building is left standing. This will form a partition between the kitchen part of the building and the front end. The Paper Quadrille given by the Yeomen last night at Columbian hall was a pretty feature and called forth much applause. The grand march was led by Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Holst, followed by twenty or more more couples all dressed in costumes decorated with newspapers. Some dazzling effects were shown in the way of vests and skirts by using the Sunday comic illustrated papers. The ladies, as a rule, showed themselves the most skillful designers of paper dress patterns, their shirt waists being marvels of color.

"AS YOU LIKE IT."

In speaking of Miss Florence Gale in "As You Like It" which will be the attraction at the Brainerd opera house on Thursday, Oct. 13, the St. Catharines Journal says:

"A large and fashionable audience witnessed the performance of Shakespeare's charming comedy at the Grand opera house on Friday night. The company is a clever one and the play was staged with great regard to the minutest detail and artistic effect, some of the scenes in the production being remarkably pretty. The costuming was all that could be desired and the ladies present certainly enjoyed the handsome gowns worn during the course of the play.

"Everyone has read Shakespeare and consequently there is no need to say anything about the plot. Miss Florence Gale, a remarkably handsome woman, made the most of 'Rosalind' and received much merited applause for her work, while George Sylvester as 'Orlando,' the lover of Rosalind, gave Miss Gale excellent support and made a most ardent lover. The cast is too long a one to mention individually and it will suffice to say that the company is an exceptionally good one. Paul Taylor as the court jester was excellent and Miss Bower as 'Celia,' companion to Rosalind, was also worthy of special mention. Particularly pleasing was the solo, 'Blow, Blow, Thou Winter Winds,' by Mr. E. Pooley. The singing of the English quartette was also much admired."

CONTEST AT AN END

FAVORS LA FOLLETTE PARTY

OPINION HOLDS THAT STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE HAS ENTIRE JURISDICTION.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 6.—The supreme court has decided that the La Follette state ticket is regular. Three judges, Marshall, Dodge and Winslow, were for the La Follette faction, while Chief Justice Cassaday dissents. The opinion will be filed later by Justice Marshall. After setting forth the facts alleged in the complaint and answer the decision continues:

First—Controversy shown to exist by increasing sufficiency concerns propriety of state and affects liberties of people to be within original jurisdiction of this court.

Second—Such controversy is of so grave a character and of such public importance as to warrant this court in exercising its original jurisdiction to determine right of matter so far as the done is of a far it to do so.

Third—Since the question presented merely involves the duty of the secretary of state in performance of an act expressly enjoined by law it is an act of a judicial nature.

Fourth—For the present case, the time not having arrived when the secretary of state is required to make certification of nominations, by general rule there is no remedy at law by mandamus; hence action, if maintainable at all, is properly brought in equity, if the legislature has not furnished another and exclusive remedy.

Fifth—The legislature intended to provide for settlement out of court of all questions between factions of a party concerning the right to the party name upon official ballot by section 35, Wisconsin statutes, in these words:

“(B) In case of a division in any political party and a claim by two or more factions thereof to the same party name, the officer with whom the certificates of nomination are required to be filed shall, in certifying such nomination or preparing ballots, give preference of name to the convention or caucus thereof held pursuant to the call of the regularly constituted party authorities, and if the committee representing the other faction presents no other party name such officer may designate the same in such manner as will best distinguish the nominations thereof.

“(B) When two or more conventions or caucuses shall be held and the nominations thereof certified, each claiming to be the regulation convention or caucus of the same political party, preference in designations shall be given to the nominations of the one certified by the committee which had been officially certified to be authorized to represent the party.”

The decision contains eighteen clauses and covers all the contentions and the history of the case. It holds that the decision of the Republican convention as to which set of delegates represented the Republican party of Wisconsin was no guide to the secretary of state or to the committee authorized to determine the factional dispute.

In brief, the court holds that the nominees headed by Governor Robert M. La Follette, under the provision of Sec. 35, Wisconsin statutes, are entitled to preference on the official Republican ballot, although the nominees of the other faction are also to be certified to the county clerks of the state.

Both the motion of plaintiff and that of the defendant are denied and the cause is dismissed for want of sufficient facts appearing to constitute a cause of action.

Milwaukee, Oct. 6.—United States Senator John C. Spooner addressed a large audience at the Davidson theater last night on national and state issues. He spoke under the auspices of the Stalwart Republican state central committee. He (the Democrat) says he is an unsafe man. He is, to rascals. He has striven to the uttermost to give to the people of the United States a clean, strong and conservative administration. CONTEST AT AN END

FAVORS LA FOLLETTE PARTY

Madison, Wis., Oct. 6.—The supreme court has decided that the La Follette state ticket is regular. Three judges, Marshall, Dodge and Winslow, were for the La Follette faction, while Chief Justice Cassoday dissents. The opinion will be filed later by Justice Marshall. After setting forth the facts alleged in the complaint and answer the decision continues:

First—Controversy shown to exist by foregoing sufficiently concerns prerogatives of state and affects liberties of people to be within original jurisdiction of this court.

Second—Such controversy is of so grave a character and of such public importance as to warrant this court in exercising its original jurisdiction to determine right of matter so far as the court is able to do so.

SPOONER TALKS AT MILWAUKEE.

Eulogizes Roosevelt and Urges the Voters to Support Him.

Milwaukee, Oct. 6.—United States Senator John C. Spooner, addressed a large audience at the Davidson theater last night on national and state issues. He spoke under the auspices of the Stalwart Republican state central committee. The senator strongly eulogized President Roosevelt and appealed to every Republican and patriotic Democrat to vote for the Republican national electors of Wisconsin. During his speech he criticized Governor La Follette for what he termed his efforts to institute a one-man power in himself within the state.

The senator said he was not a hero worshipper, but has had the opportunity while laboring under the commission of the people of Wisconsin to learn Theodore Roosevelt well. They (the Democrats) say he is an unsafe man. He is, to rascals. He has striven to the uttermost to give to the people of the United States a clean, strong and conservative administration. He seeks no quarrel but he is always prepared for one. Senator Spooner defended the president's action in the coal strike, Panama affair and the railroad merger matter.

Truckee, Cal., Oct. 6.—At this point, on the summit of the Sierra Nevada mountains, Senator Fairbanks Wednesday bade adieu to the state of California and the people of the Pacific coast states. The stop here was made before breakfast, but no formal speech was made.

At Virginia the senators were driven about in four-horse carriages and given a general view of the points of historical interest. Both at Carson and Virginia they were cordially greeted and their remarks liberally applauded. In all their speeches they urged the return of Nevada to the Republican ranks and dwelt upon the capacity of that party to maintain prosperity in the country.
